Neenah girls cruise to easy cross country win

MENASHA — The Neenah girls' cross country team served notice that it again is a power to be reckoned with by posting a near perfect score in the Brookfield East Invitational Saturday.

The defending state Class A champions, taking four of the first six places, collected 17 points.

Waukesha South was second with 51, followed by Racine Case 79, Madison West 81, Manitowoc 109, Cedarburg 139 and Kenosha Bradford 193.

The Rocket boys' team placed seventh with 141 points.

Menomonee Falls North was the winner with 44, trailed by Cedarburg 80, Manitowoc 110, Waukesha South 123, Milwaukee South 124, Madison West 133, Neenah, Racine Case 159 and Kenosha Bradford 230.

The girls' were led by first-place finisher Kathy Schaller in 11:35.

It was the initial victory for the Rocket senior, who, according to Coach Ron Fedenko, worked hard during the summer and came into the season in top form.

Teammate Joan Swanson was second in 11:52 and Eileen Schaller, a sophomore, placed third in 12:04.

Kelly Cole of Madison West broke the Rockets' monopoly on the top five with a fourth place in 12:05.

The Rockets' Colette Goudreau, still shaking the effects of an injury, was fifth in 12:06, Kathy Monard sixth in 12:09, Kris Burr 10th in 12:21, Sue Burr 29th in 13:09 and Amy Rusch 41st in 13:43.

Fedenko said Kathy Schaller and Goudreau were running shoulder to shoulder at the mile mark but that Schaller pulled ahead at the finish.

"Colette isn't 100 per cent yet," the Rocket coach said.

Neenah's Jill Camber ran the two-mile unattached race in 14:07. She was the only other Rocket entry.

The Neenah boys' team was led by Ted Owen, who finished 12th in 16:35.

Eric Oakley was 22nd in 17:03, Bill Jarosh 25th in 17:12, John Bowdry 29th in 17:14, Tom Schaper 53rd in 18:02, Tom Lamb 54th in 18:03, Erik Scribner 55th in 18:04 and Kevin Shattuck 59th in 18:20.

Paul Hernandez of Racine Case won the event in 15:42.

The Rockets, according to Coach Tom Jensen, probably could have moved up to third place from seventh with a better finish from a fifth place runner. He expects an improvement as the season progresses.

Jensen was pleased with the performance of Boundry, who ran 19:35 on the same course last year, bettering that time by more than two minutes. He added that Owen's time also was considerably better.

Neenah finishes in the unattached race were Jim Lamb 13th, Rob Wilson 30th, Alex Collins 39th, John Kidd 53rd, Pat Shandonay 75th, John Makowski 89th, Jeff Enz 90th and Bill Hammet 117th.

Andy Christian and Scott Meulemans ran in the freshman race.

Rocket harriers open season at Brookfield

NEENAH — A veteran-dominated Neenah High School girls' cross country team, defending state Class A champion, begins its schedule in the Brookfield East Invitational Saturday.

The Rockets, who were unbeaten last year and won every invitational they've entered in two-plus seasons, are coached by Ron Fedenko. He succeeds Paul Van Gompel, who no longer is in the school system.

The Rocket boys' squad, again coached by Tom Jensen, also debuts in the Brookfield meet. So do the jayvees, directed by Glen Severson.

The only girls' team regular lost by graduation was Patti Fredrick, a four-year veteran. Katherine Hildebrand was the other graduate.

Returnees include Colette Goudreau, beginning her fourth year on the varsity, Amy Rusch and Kathy Schaller, seniors; Kris Burr, Sue Burr and Joan Swanson, juniors, and Kathy Monard, sophomore.

Tammy Thompson, another letter-winner, is out with an injury.

Other squad members are Alicia Freeman, senior; Jill Camber, junior, and Robyn Goudreau, Lynn Moede, Eileen Schaller and Joan Schaper, sophomores.

Colette Goudreau was fourth and Kathy Schaller 12th in the state meet.

Fedenko said he is pleased with the veteran turnout and the fine condition in which they reported but is disappointed in that there are no freshmen on the team.

"They ran hard this summer and the time trials show that they are in excellent shape," Fedenko said.

He added that the girls are a very competitive group, knowing that if they don't perform well there are others who can step in and take their place.

Jarosh and Scribner lettered last year. Shandonay missed last season because of an injury after lettering the previous year. Owen was a regular until ruled out because of eligibility.

Jensen said he is impressed by the leadership and attitude of the seniors.

"We have more balance but don't have a runner the caliber of Paul Meulemans or other No. 1 runners of past years," the Rocket coach declared.

He believes several boys have the potential to step out and lead in the big meets.

Meulemans was conference and sectional champion and fifth in the state meet last fall.

The Neenah teams will compete in invitationals at Shawano, Oshkosh North, Wauwatosa East, Grafton and Fort Atkinson. They also have two quadrangulars and a dual with Menasha.

Rocket runners record 2nd win

SHAWANO — The defending state champion Neenah High School girls' cross country team extended its string of invitational victories to 16 in a row by winning the Shawano Invitational here Saturday.

In posting their second triumph of the season, the Neenah-girls totaled 25 points. Manitowoc was a far-away second with 78.

Green Bay Preble No. 1 was third with 90, followed by Wausau East 137, Oshkosh North 143, Wausau West 204, Antigo 211, Wisconsin Rapids 226, Preble No. 2 233, Manitowoc No. 2 346, Preble No. 3 353 and Wausau West No. 2 408.

The Rockets' Kathy Schaller won her second straight race, posting a 11:13.

Schaller finished 14 seconds ahead of Wausau East's Jennifer Hintz, the defending state champion.

Colette Goudreau was third in 11:44, Eileen Schaller fourth in 11:48, Kathy Monard eighth in 11:56, Joan

Swanson ninth in 11:56, Kris Burr 11th in 12:15, Sue Burr 15th in 12:29, Lyn Moede 26th in 12:52, Amy Rusch 32nd in 13:05, Robyn Goudreau 44th in 13:44, Jill Camber 56th in 14:06 and Jan Schaper 69th in 14:55.

The Neenah boys' team finished fifth with 145 points.

Preble won the meet with 44 points. Manitowoc totaled 95, Appleton West 117, Oshkosh North 129, Wausau West and Antigo 149, Wausau East 163 and Wisconsin Rapids 180.

Neenah places and times were Eric Oakley 17th in 17:11, Erik Scribner 29th in 17:36, John Bowdry 32nd in 17:42, Ted Owen 33rd in 17:45, Bill Jarosh 34th in 17:47, Tom Schaper 37th in 17:53, Tom Lamb 45th in 18:14 and Jim Lamb 55th in 18:53.

Girls' Coach Ron Fedenko said: Kathy Schaller was slightly ahead of Hintz at the mile mark, was about 10 yards ahead with a half mile left and pulled away at the finish.

Fedenko added that Goudreau ran well although still hampered by an injury.

He noted that because of the heat the times were off from last year.

Boys' Coach Tom Jensen said there was significant improvement in the times of some of his runners.

He said Oakley did well considering he was running in only his second race and that the fourth and fifth runners came in closer together than in the opening meet.

Neenah entered two boys' jayvee teams. One was fourth and the other seventh.

Preble gained first place with 19 points. Manitowoc accumulated 52, Wausau West 151, Neenah No. 2 156, Preble No. 2 169, Appleton West 172, Neenah No. 2 197 and Manitowoc No. 2 229. There were 15 teams entered.

Finishers for the No. 1 team were Rob Wilson 12th, Kevin Shaddock 15th, Pat Shandonay 31st, John Kidd 46th and John Makowski 52nd.

Alex Collins led No. 2 with an 11th place. Scott Meulemans was 23rd, Chris Fiedler 43rd, Andy Christian 49th, Jeff Enz 71st, Jeff Wheeler 34th and Chris Klart 85th.

The Neenah teams will compete in the Oshkosh North Invitational at Winnebago County Park Tuesday afternoon.

The girls will run at 4:30 p.m. and the boys' varsity race is slated for 5:30.

Rocket girls seek 16th straight win; Jays at Manitowoc

NEENAH-MENASHA — The Neenah High School cross country teams will make their second starts of the season in the Shawano Invitational Saturday.

The Menasha harrier squads will travel to Manitowoc to compete in the Roncalli Invitational.

The Rocket girls, who missed a perfect score by only two points in winning at Brookfield East last week, are defending champions at Shawano.

With the last triumph, they have won 15 consecutive invitationals spanning parts of three seasons.

They haven't lost a meet since finishing second in the state-Class A test in 1980.

The Rockets usually don't know the composition of the field until they get there but Green Bay Preble, the power in the Fox River Valley Conference, will run.

Colette Goudreau finished second behind teammate Patti Fredrick last season. Of the other returning runners, Kris Burr was fifth, Kathy Schaller seventh, Joan Swanson ninth and Sue Burr 10th.

The Menasha girls will be going after their second straight victory after winning the Terror Invitational at Appleton last weekend.

The Bluejays finished second in the Manitowoc run last fall, led by Becky Boegh's fifth place.

The Neenah boys were third at Shawano and Menasha placed fifth in the Roncalli test.
