NHS girls win at Fort Atkinson in final invitational meet

NEENAH — The Neenah High School girls' cross country team concluded its invitational schedule by placing first in the Fort Atkinson Invitational with 34 points Saturday.

Mount Horeb was second with 80, followed by Middleton 120, Beaver Dam 126, Verona 148, Monroe 162, Waukesha South 164, Platteville 164, Appleton East 192, Whitewater 229, Portage 314, Watertown 341, Fort Atkinson 398, Stoughton 446 and Milton 474.

Sue Keeney of Middleton set a new course record of 11:44. The old mark of 11:47 was held by Neenah's Kathy Schaller.

The Rockets' Kris Burr was second in 11:48, Kathy Monard third in 11:49 and Eileen Schaller fourth in 12:02.

It marked the first race that Schaller didn't lead the Neenah team at the finish.

Coach Ron Fedenko said she wasn't feeling well yet ran the course 15 seconds faster than last year.

Other Neenah finishers were Joan Swanson 10th, Sue Burr 15th, Amy Garlock 23rd, Jill Camber 33rd and Cathy Gilmore 71st.

Neenah finished fifth in the boys' race, which was won by Monroe with 68 points.

Appleton East had 103, Waukesha North 105, Waukesha South 120, Neenah 129, Stoughton 136, Milwaukee Thomas More 137, Beaver Dam 140, Middleton 199 and Watertown 268.

Mike Dignan of Monroe was first in 16:01, placing 31 seconds ahead of Appleton East's Dan Grogan.

Eric Oakley led the Rockets with a seventh place finish in 17:08. Tom Schaper was 10th in 17:15.

Jim Lamb placed 29th, Erik Scribner 35th, Scott Meulemans 48th, Todd Napiwocki 53rd, Rob Wilson 69th and Bill Hammett 72nd.

Boys' Coach Tom Jensen lauded Oakley, Schaper and Lamb for their performances.

Fedenko pointed out that, comparing times with last year, the top five runners all bettered previous efforts, some by as much as 38 seconds.

Girls' jayvee finishes included Kathy Burr fourth, Jan Schaper fifth and Karein Reiden 23rd.

The Rocket boys' jayvee team was sixth with 129 points. Waukesha South won with 33.

Neenah's Brian LeGault was the winner in 18:02. Jeff Wheeler took 28th place, Glen Smith 33rd, Alex Scribner 36th, Jeff Enz 41st, Mike Halverson 42nd and Darin Schoening 66th.

The Neenah teams will defend their championships in the Fox Valley Association meet at Kaukauna's Countryside Golf Course Thursday.
