Owens wins 3rd straight race

NEENAH-MENASHA — Jenny Owens captured her third straight victory in leading the Neenah girls' cross country team to a third place in the Shawano Invitational. Teammate Kayann Monard was third.

The Rockets totaled 69 points, five more than champion Manitowoc. Menasha was fifth with 181 points.

The Neenah boys were third with 107 points and the Bluejays finished eighth with 209. Rhinelander finished in first place with 61.

The best finish by a local runner in the boys' race was a 10th by Menasha's Todd Arndt.

St. Mary's girls were third in the Lourdes Invitational, finishing seven points behind champion Xavier, with 92 points. Becky Otto was third and Sue Swiecichowski ninth.

The Zephyr boys didn't have enough entries to make up a team but Mark Phillippi placed third and Tim Rippl was sixth.

The Zephyr girls were third with 50 points and the boys sixth with 151 in the Manitowoc Roncalli Invitational.

Little Chute took the boys' meet with 43 points and St. Joseph Academy took the girls' run with 50.

Otto and Rippl took fourth places and Phillippi was ninth.
