Rockets set pace in Kimberly

KIMBERLY — Neenah dominated both the boys' and girls' runs at a four-team Fox Valley Association cross country meet on Tuesday at Sunset Park.

The Rocket boys finished with 18 points, while the girls had 19.

For the boys, Rhett Weyenberg took first place. Teammate Bret Weyenberg placed second, while the Rockets also took the fourth through eighth places.

Only Appleton West's Ryan Patschke's third-place finish kept Neenah from a perfect score.

The Terrors took second in the boys' run with 51 points.

For the girls, Neenah's Christy McCutcheon took first place while Kimberly's Kim Griesbach was second.

The Rockets filled the next four places with Meghan Patterson, Julie Olson, Christy Codner and Sara Codner.

Kimberly finished second to Neenah with 63 points.
