East girls race to Oshkosh North Invitational title

By Chris Speckhard
Of The Post-Crescent

OSHKOSH — Appleton East's Joe Perez has coached cross country long enough to know he can't take anything for granted.

But for now, he can savor his Patriots team title in the girls portion of the Oshkosh North Spartan Invitational at windy and rainy Menominee Park on Thursday.

East scored 71 points, just four points ahead of fellow Fox Valley Association powerhouse Oshkosh West.

"We had hoped we had a chance," said Perez. "We've been in some real tough competition. Don't get me wrong, this is a good competition, but were doing very well."

However, Perez kept a cool head over East's win, its first invitational victory this year.

"Oshkosh West has got a real good team, Wausau West has a good team, and Neenah has a good team," he said. "Next week, it could change. No, I'm not overconfident."

The Patriots got three runners in the top 10, led by Emily Gebheim, who placed fifth with a time of 15:55. Besides fighting the elements, Gebheim was running with a cold.

"I knew I could finish this high," she said. "I wasn't sure just because of how I was feeling. I've just got that initial cold like where you have no energy, but I think it helped because my muscles were more relaxed."

As for the weather, Gebheim added, "I didn't really notice the wind that much and the rain ended up being kind of refreshing."

Tovah Mendoza came in sixth, while Erica Bauer took ninth for East.

Little Chute's Abby Hurst took the Individual girls title, edging Oshkosh West's Jackie Munoz by four seconds. The Mustangs' sophomore stayed a few runners back until the second half of the race, finishing in a time of 15:44 for her sixth win of the year.

"I was nervous the whole way pretty much, because I didn't know what to expect with the big schools," said Hurst. "I was just going to hang back and let them block the wind and see what I could do when after we turned around."

Munoz and teammate Bridget Kessen, who finished fourth, helped the Indians to a second-place team finish, while Katie Olander was Menasha's top placer, coming in eighth. Kara Vosters took 10th to help Little Chute to a fifth-place score.

In the boys race, Wausau West ran away with the team and individual titles, but Neenah placed a strong second with 70 points; seven ahead of third-place Little Chute. Like the East girls, the Rockets got three runners in the top 10.

"We knew that that there were some real good teams here, especially Wausau West, which is ranked quite high in the state, said Neenah boys coach John Morgan. "The kids really ran well considering the weather. We're hoping to build off of that."

The Rockets only two returning letterwinners, Ryan Waterstreet and Paul Mason, led the pack with a fifth and seventh-place finish, respectively.

"Those two need to be up front, and that's where they were," said

Morgan. Jason Olson came in 10th for Neenah. Matt Van Vreede helped Little Chute to its third-place score by finishing fourth with a time of 17:01.

"I came in right about where I expected," said Van Vreede. "I knew there was a lot of good Division 1 times out there."

Oshkosh West finished well behind Little Chute with 101 points, although Matt Lenahan took second individually.
