Neenah runners third in West Bend opener

■ The Rocket girls trailed Waukesha Memorial and West Bend East

The Neenah girls cross country team claimed a third-place finish in Saturday's West Bend West Challenge, its opening meet of the season.

Determined on total time, Waukesha Memorial was first in 83:15, followed by West Bend East 87:26, Neenah 87:57, Hartford 88:53 and Mayville 89:52 in the 18-school meet.

The Neenah boys finished fifth among the 22 entries in 89:22, trailing Racine Case 87:01, West Bend West 87:39, Muskego 88:37 and Fond du Lac 89.15.

Danelle Johnson was 11th and Marni Burton 18th to lead the Neenah seniors in the girls event.

Tina Schraufnagel finished sixth, Lindsey Wilhelm 12th and Kristin Morris 14th in the junior race; Kristin Berg was sixth and Theresa Foulks 12th in the sophomore event; and Kate Petersen took second, Kim Stefens, third, Stephanie Abney, 12th, and Erin Fischer, 14th, among the freshmen.

Paul Mason was 10th overall to lead the Neenah boys in their event.

His time of 17:14 bettered Ryan Waterstreet by three seconds.

Neenah's other top finishers were Jason Olson, Ryan Lenerz and Mike Vogel.

The Neenah junior varsity girls team, posting 92.25, was runner-up to Waukesha Memorial's 90:13.

Neenah also was second in the junior varsity boys race with a 95:53, behind West Bend West's 95:50.

The Neenah teams will compete in the Hodag Invitational at Rhineland
