Illness, injuries hurt top boys

By Dick Knapinski
Post-Crescent staff writer

WISCONSIN RAPIDS
— There was something bugging many of the top area boys' runners at Saturday's WIAA state cross country meet.

It wasn't anything that made them mad. It was instead the illness and injury bugs that took many of the top prospects out of contention.

Xavier senior Michael Stumpf, for instance, decided Saturday morning that he would run after battling bronchitis for much of the past 10 days. Stumpf came into the meet with one of the state's best Division 2 times, but struggled to make it through sectionals and could barely practice last week.

"I was awful today," Stumpf said after coming in 73rd on the 5,000-meter Ridges Golf Course layout in 17:31. "This whole week was rough. There were times I had to stop running when we were training to catch my breath and cough."

The Neenah boys' team was also hampered by the illness of its No. 1 runner, Kaiser Behnke, and the leg injury to No. 2 runner Matt Houston. Behnke came in 68th among Division 1 runners, while Houston struggled throughout and placed 137th.

It was a disappointing end for the Rockets, who had been ranked in the top five among the state's Division 1 teams all season and had hoped for a high finish among the 20 Division 1 teams at the state meet.

Instead, Neenah placed ninth with 224 points.

"When you look at the top teams here, it's tough when you know that when you were healthy, you were competing with and beating many of those teams," Rockets coach John Morgen said. "But injuries and illness are part of it, but it's tough when your top two runners are suffering."

Even Kaukauna senior Michael Brice, who came into the meet as one of the Division 1 favorites, battled the beginnings of a cold early in the week. Whether that influenced his run, he'll never know, but he admitted that he never was able to make a surge as he placed 12th.

"I wasn't tight for the race, but I'm not exactly sure what it was, but it certainly wasn't my day," Brice said.
