Rockets Dwarf Opponents

Banding together and calling themselves the Little People, Rick Johnson, Greg Schaller, Rick Caldie, and Steve Thome faced the tall-is-beautiful majority group eye-to-shoulder and set out to prove that height isn't always that important. Although none of the Little People ever placed first individually in a meet, they balanced the Rocket's attack perfectly and proved that height, or the lack of it, is no handicap in cross-country running. Aided by Coach Jensen's superior coaching, their unbeaten team spirit, and dedication to the sport, the team sprinted to 9 wins out of 13 meets and topped off a great season with a third place at state.

The Rockets began by capturing the first Fox Valley Association crown, finishing unbeaten in FVA competition. Neenah tore through the regional meet, placing their 5 scoring runners in the top finishers. Tougher competition in the sectionals slowed down the Rocket charge, but they finished second by just 4 points and earned their first trip to state since 1966.
